NEWS NOTES from MOVIELAND
67 DAISY DEAN

Known as "The King of the Comic Opera Stage," Frank Daniels is now enlivening moving picture fans by his droll antics, peculiarly subtle comedy, and pliable facial contortions.

It was as "Peck's Bad Boy" that Mr. Daniels first came into the public's eye, and from that time his has been a continued stream of success. He has appeared in "The Belle of Brittany," "Omar Khayyam," "Hook of Holland" and "Sergeant Brue."

Equally effective has been his work on the screen. As Mr. Jack in "The Escapades of Mr. Jack," as "Crooky," in the comic comedy of the same name, and in his laugh provoking comicities in "What Happened to Father," Mr. Daniels has established himself firmly in the hearts of screen fans.

Lillian Gish has two hobbies—collecting rare books and playing golf. When 8 years old she appeared with Sarah Bernhardt as a fairy dancer and continued with her for two years.

Norma Talmadge in "Going Straight," "Going Straight" is the title of the new Norma Talmadge picture which will be released by the Triangle in June. The drama aims to solve the problem confronting a respectable man who has a criminal past to live down. Miss Talmadge is the wife of the man, played by Ralph Lewis, and Eugene Pallette is a crook who lives by blackmailing his former pal.

Bernard McConville, the author, has provided a scenario that indicates great dramatic strength. His crook, Jimmy Briggs, recognizes in John Remington his former pal in many a dangerous and profitable job. Remington's wife was also a member of the gang but both are going straight when Jimmy comes into their life again. Cut backs emphasize the contrast between the old life of the Remingtons and the new. The element of suspense is said to be well developed in the action.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

Remember how you enjoyed "What Will People Say?" when it first appeared as a serial in a popular magazine? Remember how eagerly other Rupert Hughes novels have been snapped up by the reading public and become "best sellers" almost overnight? Well, there's a brand new Rupert Hughes novel just about ready. Its title is "Gloria's Romance," and in addition to being issued as a fiction story it was made into motion pictures and released one chapter at a time. It begins at the Majestic Wednesday and appears every week thereafter. And nobody else than wonderful little Billie Burke is going to play the role of the heroine in the film production—Billie Burke, whom theatre managers the country over unite in proclaiming the most popular feminine star in America, whose name in electric lights over a metropolitan theatre means certain success and a long run.

AT SPENCER SQUARE.

"My Lady Incog," in which the Famous Players Film company stars Hazel Dawn on the Paramount program at the Spencer Square tomorrow and Monday, gives the popular actress the best opportunity of her motion picture career. In this combination of thrills and laughs Miss Dawn plays a southern society belle who turns detective to save her home from ruin. Nell Carroll of Carrollton finds herself penniless with the old home mortgaged and in danger of being seized. Obtaining employment in a private detective agency, Nell is put to work on one of the most baffling cases in the hands of the agency. Several beautiful homes in an exclusive summer colony have been robbed and there is every reason to believe that the work is being done from the inside. Arrangement is made with the newspapers to herald the arrival of the Baroness Du Vassey, under which title Nell is introduced into the exclusive set and is promptly taken up by a Mrs. De Veaux, at whose house she becomes a guest. She has not been in the house very long before she picks up very well defined clues that point to young Teddy De Veaux as the culprit. That would be all very well, but the fact is that Teddy has begun to interest Nell a great deal. He, in turn, is fascinated by this delightful baroness.

HOME ORCHESTRA IN FIRST CONCERT

Tri-City Symphony Appears Monday at Burtis, Davenport, in Initial Public Program.

The initial appearance of the Tri-City Symphony orchestra Monday evening at Burtis opera house, Davenport, has created much interest in local musical circles and the advance seat sale points to a capacity house.

The program which has been announced for the first concert contains among other compositions, the Schubert Symphony No. 8 in B minor known as the unfinished symphony, a number played by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra on its recent appearance in the tri-cities, Ludwig Beethoven, under whose capable direction the orchestra has been rehearsing, will conduct the orchestra Monday evening. Miss Esther Plumb, formerly of Davenport, now of Chicago, known locally for her splendid soprano voice, will be the vocal soloist of the evening, singing "Dich Theure Halle" from Tannhauser, the same number in which Mme. Fremstad last fall in Davenport made such an excellent impression.

Robert Macdonald, of Davenport, concert pianist, who has appeared as soloist with the Chicago Symphony orchestra, will play Saint Saens' Concerto in G minor, Op. 22, the three movements: Andante, allegro and presto.

The Program.

The program is excellently arranged as follows:
Prelude to "The Meistersinger"..... Wagner
Aria "Dich Theure Halle" (Tannhauser)..... Wagner
..... Esther Plumb.
Symphony No. 8, in B minor (Unfinished)..... Schubert
Intermission.
Concerto in G minor, Op. 22..... Saint Saens
Andante
Allegro
Presto

Robert Macdonald, (strings only)..... Tchaikowski
Waltz from Ballet "Dornroschen"..... Tchaikowski
March "Slave"..... Tchaikowski
The Burtis should be filled to its capacity Monday evening to give this tri-city organization the encouragement it deserves. The members have put in many hours of serious, hard work in preparation and the future of the orchestra will depend much upon the support given it by the musical public. A symphony orchestra is a splendid thing for a community as John C. Freund pointed out in a recent address. Aside from the musical standpoint it is a great business asset and unparalleled advertiser.

Triangle, World, Fox, Metro plays, Ince, Griffith and Sennet productions, the world's greatest, seen only at the Majestic.

AT THE COLONIAL

Charley Chaplin will be seen at the Colonial tomorrow in what is said to be one of his funniest comedies. It is called "The Floor Walker."

BODY OF FARMER FOUND UNDER CAR

Godfrey Johnson of Orion Meets Tragic Death Yesterday Evening When His Machine Upsets.

ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE SHOWER

Overturned Automobile and Its Victim Are Found Lying on Hill East of Coal Valley.

(Special To The Argus.)

Orion, Ill., May 27.—The overturning of his automobile while he was driving on a hill three miles east of Coal Valley yesterday evening cost Godfrey Johnson, a farmer, his life. Johnson was alone. His body, pinned beneath the machine, was found about 8 o'clock by Thomas Brown and Thomas Anderson.

The unfortunate man was returning from a visit to the tri-cities, his home being five miles northeast of Orion. He was driving a new automobile. In an effort to avoid a rapidly approaching shower, it is believed, he was speeding over the road, made slippery by an earlier rain. At the top of the hill he lost control of the car and it plunged half way to the bottom before it turned to the side of the grade and upset. This was made evident by tracks in the mud which showed where the automobile had skidded.

It is not known what length of time the body lay at the roadside before it was found. Because of the rain traffic over the highway was practically at a standstill.

Coroner R. C. J. Meyer of Moline was notified immediately by the men who found the body. They removed the corpse to an undertaking establishment in Orion, where an inquest was held today.

Leaves Wife and Children.

Mr. Johnson, who was about 40 years old, is survived by his wife, two sons, Clifford and Chester; a sister, Mrs. John Peterson, Orion; and four brothers, August, Orion; Oscar, Coal Valley; William and Gust, Matherville.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST FILM NOVEL

"Gloria's Romance"

By Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes with

Miss Billie Burke

HENRY KOLKER, WILLIAM ROSELLE
And a wonderful cast. Positively George Kleine's greatest triumph. Read it in the Chicago Tribune and see it at the Majestic.

Miss Burke's gowns valued at $50,000. Designed by Henri Bendell, Lucile, and Balcom.

This screen novel sets absolutely a new standard in literary merit of motion pictures. Miss Burke in her role of Gloria Stafford, a New York banker's daughter, appears as a youthful and vivacious girl in love with a young broker. A fascinating mystery develops and action follows rapidly. Scenes of the opening chapter are laid in fashionable Palm Beach and homes along Riverside Drive, New York.

THE $1,000,000 PRODUCTION

Tonight—Clara Kimball Young in "The Feast of Life"; also Keystone comedy.

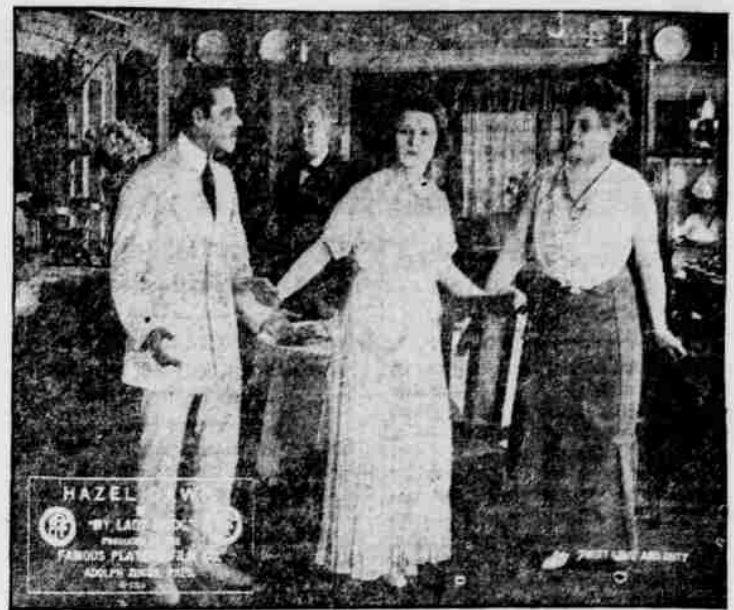

Sunday—Harold Lockwood and May Allison in "The Comeback"; also Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew, comedy.

Monday-Tuesday, Triangle days—William H. Thompson and Anna Lehr in "Civilization's Child," an Ince production; also Charley Murray in "A Bathhouse Blunder," a regular Keystone 2,900-foot scream.
